

Golden Eagle Award

- Omaha Post award created and sponsored by Bill Stutz
- The award is in honor of Doug Plack and is awarded to an individual whose traits and characteristics mirror those of Doug Plack
 - Dedication to God and country
 - Dedication to the engineering profession
 - Dedication to and love of family
 - Strong support of community programs
 - Support of youth programs
 - Willingness to respond to those in need
 - Well-known in the engineering community either locally or nationally
- A monetary donation will be made to the recipient's charity of choice

Past Years Recipients

- 2007 Roy A. Singleton
- 2008 Jim and Paula Wells
- 2009 Daniel B. Owens
- 2010 Robert J. Michaels
- 2011 Jimmy Brasch
- 2012 Jeanne LeBron
- 2013 James H. Wathen
- 2014 David A. Packard
- 2015 Roger J. Wozny
- 2016 Mike Baldino
- 2017 William J. Glismann

2018 Golden Eagle Award

- Anne Peterson, RLA, HDR

- Daughter of a WWII Air Force Pilot and career military officer
- Licensed landscape architect
- Co-Vice President for Leadership and Mentoring, Omaha Post
- Co-leader of the Omaha Post Student Mentoring Program and Mentor through the Teammates Mentoring Program (founded by Tom Osborne)
- Mother of a licensed architect and a licensed engineer
- President of her neighborhood association and supportive of many community programs and non-profit activities
- Civic volunteer to homeless shelters
- Strong supporter of engineering/architecture network and professional organizations