Building America: 150 Years of Union Pacific

Patricia LaBounty has been the outreach coordinator for the Union Pacific Railroad Museum since 2006, transitioning to collections and outreach manager for the Union Pacific Historical Collection as of January 2012. With a degree in Anthropology, Patricia has worked in Museums since 1993, both in collections and outreach, taking a brief 10 year hiatus into a Montessori classroom. Born in Boulder Colorado, Ms. LaBounty has lived and traveled extensively all over the world. From Denmark to Botswana and back, Ms. LaBounty and her family moved to Council Bluffs, Iowa in 2005 from Kaneohe, Hawaii. As collections and outreach manager, Patricia is in charge of making sure that the Union Pacific Historical Collection at the Museum is safe and sound and helping our community explore and experience all that the Museum has to offer through special tours and programs.
